ANNUAL MEETING 1972

As every realistic authority will aver, if a society, group, association, firm, club, etc. is being conducted to the satisfaction of its members, then annual meetings are only expected to be minimal in attendance.

So it was with Tattersall's ship of state at the 1972 annual general meeting.

At the helm Chairman Geoff Eastment, mainsail hand Treasurer Barney Fay, and for'ard hand Secretary Jim Thomson, aided and abetted by a most competent crew kept an even keel and their reports were accepted in wholesome fashion by the members.

There was a temporary delay in commencing the meeting on time because the quorum required a further three members. Then from the Dining Room Norm Rogers led a contingent numbering some 14 which more than satisfied the constitutional stipulation.

With the serious aspects of administration and finance accepted and adopted, the meeting proceeded at a quick tempo, and within an hour the members had dispersed to adjoining quarters to enjoy the Chairman's hospitality.

With the retirement of Committeeman Alf Collins, the members joined in welcoming Tom Nicholas to the vacancy, and wished him well in his new environment.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY HONOURS

Tattersall's Club members were again honoured by Her Majesty's conferral of birthday honours, and we congratulate the following.

Sir Arthur George

Sir Arthur George is well known for his work for the Australian Greek community and in soccer circles. Born in Sydney of Greek parents, Sir Arthur became a solicitor and later a successful company solicitor and property director. He has been president of the Australian Soccer Federation since 1970.

Tattersall's Club Magazine

Sir John Marks founded a large finance corporation and has been its chairman and managing director since 1953. He is senior partner in his firm of chartered accountants, and holds numerous directorships.

Sir John Marks

He has been chairman of the Prince Henry Hospital, the Prince of Wales Hospital and the Eastern Suburbs Hospital boards.

Sir John is a member of the Council of Macquarie University and a commissioner of the Electricity Commission of NSW. He was awarded the CBE in 1966.

Our congratulations are also extended to J.E. Rankin, CMG, for service to finance and international relations, F.J. Mahoney OBE, Deputy Secretary Attorney General's Dept., and J.R. Cribb OBE, for services to transport.

MEMBERS' HOUSE ACCOUNTS

As from this month the Committee has authorised an administration charge of 50c per month to be added to all active monthly house accounts.

KING'S CUP

When Eric Morgan returned from Hobart he met Fred Daly MHR at Mascot airport. "What are you doing out here?" asked Fred. "I've been down to Tasmania to watch the King's Cup" replied Eric.

"That reminds me," said Fred, "years ago one of my mates asked me 'What about coming over to South Australia for the King's Cup?' So off we went and just as the plane was about to land at the Adelaide airport I said, 'By the way, what horse are we coming over to back?'"

"And," said Fred, "it was then for the first time that I learned that the King's Cup was rowed, not ridden.

ARTFUL ARTIE

If Arthur O'Connor is in the company then you can expect light hearted banter. Arthur will be remembered as the Australian diminutive dare devil high diver whose feats from incredible heights were little short of amazing.

It was he of short stature who, in addressing the Chairman at one Tattersall's annual meeting, commenced by saying "I assure you Mr. Chairman I am not standing in a hole".

At the 1972 meeting Norm Rogers spoke on the procedure of the meeting insofar as no motion could be moved, only a suggestion or recommendation made.

Plaintively Arthur stated that this meeting on the First Floor was not the only Club venue where there was a problem in moving a motion, because equally difficult circumstances prevailed at the Third Floor gathering.

His assertion was greeted with loud laughter.

BUSY KNIGHT AND DAY

Sir Robert Norman flew from the International Monetary Fund Conference in Montreal to Wellington, N.Z. Two days later to Sydney for a bank board meeting. Another two days and he flew to Tokyo for a meeting of the CPAS Pacific Partnership, a Wales-Bank of Tokyo-Bank of America of which Sir Robert is chairman. From Tokyo to Fiji to give an address on Pacific development, then to a conference with the Bank of Hawaii in Honolulu and a World Bank meeting in Washington.

Thence back to Sydney and Tattersall's.

TO THOSE THAT HATH

Prior to Sir Emmet and Lady Arline McDermott's recent extended visit overseas we reported the many stop-overs they would encounter and doubtless enjoy.

Last month back in Sydney the couple were honoured guests at a function arranged by Italian consul general Dr. Guido Natali, and they bought raffle tickets for an air trip to Rome and return.

You guessed right!

Yes! Lady McDermott won the raffle and try as she might to return the ticket the gallant Dr. Natali insisted she retain the prize as a gift to her.

NOW NO WORRIES

Nowell Jones in his vast racing ownership experience has accumulated the unenviable record of running last, in the many races he has contested, from the Melbourne Cup to Novice class.

He seems to take pride in his lesser fortunes, and prior to embarking on his Brisbane onslaught in June with Salvation Sal and Lincoln's Inn he confided that he would not be worrying.

The reason being that he had acquired a set of worry beads and there was no disaster that could upset him, let alone running last in another race.

ALF COLLINS RETIRES

Throughout the Club there was a general feeling of regret when Committeeman Alf Collins announced his intention to retire. The vacancy thus created has been filled by Tom Nicholas.

Alf joined Tattersall's Club in 1927 and was elected to the Committee in 1941. In the interim he has served on most of the sub committees and was on the House Committee for a period of 13 years.

On his 23rd birthday Alf was admitted as a solicitor. He commenced his own practice in 1918 and was active in the profession until three years ago.

A great judge of race horses Alf contributed to Smith's newspapers and his articles were featured in the Daily Guardian for ten years.

Since 1924 Alf had personal associations with all the visiting English MCC teams, and in 1936, whilst on a visit to England, his services were officially appreciated by his being appointed by Sir Pelham Warner as an honorary member of Lords Cricket Ground.

Alf is a member of the AJC, having joined 52 years ago, and has been with the STC since its inception.

In recognition of his great services to Tattersall's Club he was made an honorary life member in 1964.

Alf's eyes were moist when Chairman Geoff Eastment presented him with a gold key affording entry to the Board Room at all times.

We wish Alf a very happy and contented retirement, and look forward to his always regular visits and continued interest in the Club for which he has done so much throughout his honoured career.

Tattersall Club members at the Savages' Cartoonists' Night.

SAVAGES

As we have previously recorded, the Sydney Savage Club takes its name from the famous Savage Club in London which was founded in 1857.

It is composed of men practising or interested in the creative arts, literature, music, architecture, drama, the sciences, original research and discovery.

The Savages meet in the Sportsman's Room at Tattersall's Club each month to enjoy, encourage and practise these arts and sciences in a Bohemian atmosphere of good fellowship and comradeship.

And their convivial meetings are always a tremendous success.

Particularly so is the night designated "Cartoonists' Night Corroboree."

Held in May this year it was a "boomer", and was capably chaired by chief Savage Dr. Fuzz Porter. As Tattersall's bowlers will avow, Fuzz seems to have an endless repertoire of anecdotes and stories. He possesses that rare gift of being able to tell them in a droll way which ensures the impact in the last phrase with no betrayal of mien.

Brave Stan Pitkethley was well to the fore whilst honoured through the evening was Os Bates in his capacity as originator of Cartoonists' Corroboree.

It is an occasion when all the artists gather together and the opportunity is afforded to meet and pay tribute to these men of the gifted pen who in their own inimitable way present the daily scene in politics, humour and general topics.

We met Emile Mercier, Frank Benier, Harry Eyre Jnr., Bruce Cousin, Emeric, Clarrie King, and apologies came from Stan Cross, Eric Joliffe, Jim Cox, Tony Tafty and Jim Russell.

The Savages have a committee which select and present awards for the best cartoons of the year, and the 1972 awards went firstly to Harry Eyre Jnr., and for the comic strip to Les Dixon, creator of Bluey and Curley.

Each cartoonist made lightning sketches during the evening, naturally humourous, and perhaps the loudest round of applause went to Os Bates for his portrayal.

And concluding the function, Fuzz Porter led the recital of the closing ode "Soon will the boomerang speed on, Silent the Gunyah be, Then Savages, goodbye until our next Corroboree."

SPORTING CLUBS' ART UNION RESULT

The Art Union conducted by City Tattersall's Club and Tattersall's Club in aid of the Australian Olympic Appeal was drawn at the Sydney Town Hall by Deputy Lord Mayor, Mr. Nick Shehadie, on Friday, 16th June.

The first prize of a 1972 Holden Kingswood automatic sedan was won by ticket number 147, held by Mr. D. Ryan, c/- City Tattersall's Club, 198 Pitt St., Sydney.

The Olympic Appeal will benefit to the extent of $2,250 and the committee conducting the Art Union wish to congratulate Mr. Ryan on his win and thank all those who purchased tickets to assist this great appeal.

NO HIJACK

Leaving Fiji after a visit to the South Pacific festival, Sir Asher Joel packed into his baggage four Fijian war clubs. Customs was a little doubtful about war clubs and explained to Sir Asher that "Prime Minister Ratu Sir Kamisese Mara is travelling on your plane, Sir; there is a strict security check and we will have to take your war clubs."

They travelled in the plane's cargo hold and Sir Asher got them in Sydney.

So the first hijack with a Fijian war club has yet to come.

DINING, WINING AND DANCING

A pleasant party was held when a little family group gathered comprising Mrs. W.R. Laforest and her sons, members Geoff and Bill and their wives, together with Mrs. Kenyon.

FINE PROGENY

It is always pleasing to see a Club member interested in the ownership of a horse which is a winner.

So it is with Sir John Austin and Showfel, the Victorian mare which created a good impression with its recent wins in Sydney. Sir John owns Showfel's dam, Magic Notes, which is a ripe 22 years of age.

Magic Notes is at Sir John's Princes Farm where she has a weanling by Novalis, and is in foal to Le Cordonnier.

COOL

So icy cool did Sir Edward Warren remain that it earned the encomiums of all who fear the protest element.

It happened in Wellington, N.Z., when Sir Edward, inter alia, international president of the Pacific Basin Economic Council, was closing a conference. Brawling Uni students hurled a chemical can at Sir Edward. It hit him on the head, exploded, covered his suit and hair in a white chemical and hurt his eyes. Most people ran to panic stations.

Not so Sir Edward, who continued his closing address and at its conclusion was warmly congratulated for his unruffled poise.

LOOKING BACK

This photograph, taken in the year 1906, depicts an era of the early 1900s, when the Epsom and Metropolitan double was won by Maximise, and Solution, both ridden by L.C. (Monk) Hewitt.

As a tribute to his expert horsemanship an all over buckskin Ted Sloan type saddle was made and presented to Hewitt by Frank Arnold.

The saddle was made by James Howarth, father of Tattersall's senior member Larry Howarth, who did all the hand stitching with silk thread. He is seen on the right of the picture, those on his left being Norman and William Arnold, sons of Frank.

Members of that period will remember the horse on the balcony which will bring back pleasant memories.

GRAND DADS

Committeeman Les Tidmarsh, for the first time, is a grandfather. His daughter Lee has given birth to a son, and both, with good father Robbie Anderson, are doing well.

And not to be outdone is Irwin

Ireland, ex amateur Australian and NSW boxing champion, and sparring partner of Committeeman Jack McKell. Irvie has had an extended experience in this regard, and most recent descendant is named Richard John.

PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH

DAVE CASBEN

When Dave Casben bought a stallion named Gaul from fellow Club member Tom Flynn, many thought that Dave had the worst end of the deal. Dave paid a five figure amount for the horse which had some critics because of his fertility rating.

But Dave knew that Gaul had sired good winners and reasoned that the young stallion would be a success if he had a restricted number of mares each season.

As we all know Dave's reasoning was correct, and only one mare did not get into foal with Gaul last spring. It was Bouquet of which you will hear later.

Dave was born at Bankstown along with his brother Donald. They were the last of seven children, and Dave thinks twins would not have been good news to his father as times were tough and he was a fettler on the railway which didn't pay much.

Dave was educated at Canterbury High, where according to his own reckoning he was a poor scholar. His sport at school was soccer, but he says he was a very ordinary player. However later he was a very keen water skier for a number of years and had the dubious honour of being one of the first to barefoot ski on the Hawkesbury River. This was about 15 years ago because today many people barefoot.

On the day Dave turned 15 he left school and caught the 10.30 pm mail train to Mudgee, arriving there at 7.30 the next morning — frozen. Fortunately it was Friday and the main shopping day for the area, and after asking several likely looking types Dave landed a job with a farmer at Cooyal about 12 miles out.

It took him about a year to work out that at ten shillings a week and his keep he wasn't going to get far, so he returned to Sydney and tried his hand at panel beating. By the time he was 21 he employed 13 panel beaters in his own business at Bankstown.

Horses have always been Dave's first love, and even before he left school he was buying horses at the old Homebush sale yards and riding them bare back to East Bankstown (now Greenacre) where, with a little luck, he would eventually sell them at a profit.

Although Dave became involved in a number of ventures, horses and cattle are his main interest. He has properties at Muswellbrook (Yarramalong) and Caroona, (Breeza Plains).

Dave says that he had a great experience several years ago when he took 18 horses to the Philippines on the ship Arawatta. The horses belonged to a Philippine group and it was his job to look after them en route and land them safely in Manilla. Being signed on as a crew member and therefore getting to know the crew well gave him the opportunity of seeing sights that he would never have seen as a tourist.

In 1969 Dave and his wife Elaine attended the Adelaide yearling sales together with Os Roberts, a fellow Club member and his wife Thelma. On the first night they attended the Bloodhorse Breeders' dinner and Dave said that he and Os drank much of that good SA wine. The next morning they were not too popular with their wives and as they were to attend another party that night they resolved not to touch a drop.

That they did, and after this party, on their way back to the car, Dave stepped over a garden that appeared to border a lawn, which it didn't, and fell down a drop of about six feet breaking two ribs. Later at the hospital he was given a bottle of pills to stop the pain.

Next day the Adelaide sales went from 10 am to 10 pm and the seats were very hard. However, Dave felt nothing thanks to the pills, and at 9 pm when the ring was practically deserted he had a filly knocked down to him for $2,300. She was the Romantic-Roussell Fair filly. She was neat and small, boasting the same family as Flight.

Dave and Elaine named her Bouquet and she proved one of Sydney's top two year olds in the spring of 1969. That November Bouquet won three races and was second in four starts — ability that made her a worthy contender for the Silver Slipper Stakes and Golden Slipper Stakes.

But in each of these Slippers what did Bouquet encounter — only Baguette! Dave retired Bouquet to the stud where she was mated with Stan Fox's $80,000 Village Square (imp).

A filly just about identical with the dam was the result, but unfortunately she had an eye removed and will never race. However, she will go to the stud when a three year old and will be mated with Gaul.

Dave has been to the Adelaide sales regularly since, but without the pills he says he is not much of a judge.

Dave is a regular patron of our Dining Room, and with his family adjudges it as the best. They love the food, the varied menu and the music.

BOWLING NOTES

By PETER MCGRATH

The 24th annual meeting of Tattersall's Club Bowling Club was held with a fine gathering of members.

The committee is pleased to announce that Stan Chatterton and Ken Williams have been made life members of the Bowling Club.

All office bearers were returned with the addition of W. Hetherington being elected a vice-president. Bill is president of Double Bay Bowling Club, and will be a valuable acquisition to our list of vice-presidents.

Topics discussed during the meeting and which will claim the committee's attention in the near future were: the Turf Bowlers' Association Carnival; playing of non-members; grading of players; venues of fixtures; and substitution of dinner around Christmas time instead of the annual bowlers' ball.

Members will be entitled to bring a friend either male or female to the dinner which if held at Yuletide will "kill two birds with one stone" and not bring two "birds" as Bunny Dirkin pointed out.

Members were advised that they shortly will have Sir Leslie Herron as an active player and the after game stories of those two raconteurs Sir Leslie and Dr. Fuzz Porter should be worth going miles to hear.

TATTERSALL'S CLUB SKI CLUB DINNER DANCE GREAT SUCCESS

It was an early preliminary to the snow season and old experiences on and off the skis were recounted and future plans formulated.

There will be a general meeting of Tattersall's Club Ski Club on Monday, 24th July, at 5.30 pm in the Sportsman's Room. All members and skiers are particularly requested to attend to discuss accommodation facilities and the possible acquisition of a lodge.

There are still vacancies for the week 12-19th August at Falls Creek. Cost is approx. $80-90 which includes full board. Doesn't matter whether you are coming as a single, a couple or a family. We can fit you into a suitable room. Bookings must be made by 21st July. A good time is ensured.

GOLF NOTES

OLYMPIC FUND BENEFITS FROM GOLF CLUB MEET AT AUSTRALIAN.

Over $400 went to the Australian Olympic Appeal as a result of the Golf Club's day at the Australian on 30th May last.

The committee decided to give prizes of $10 tickets to the winners of the various competitions in lieu of the usual trophies.

Treasurer Vic Vadas "bailed up" many of the members who were eager to win the first prize of an automatic sedan.

The day was a happy one with 140 players present. The course was in perfect condition and brought out the best in that jocular member Jim Coulson and Air Force visitor Col Inglis to win the four ball with 45 points. Jim and Col won in a very exhaustive countback from Arthur Johnson and consistent Bruce McKinnon.

Pipe smoking Neil Campbell puffed his way round with pressure golfer Bruce Cox to record 44 points. Many tales of woe were told about putts that just didn't go in.

David Jones with the Moss Vale bloom on his cheeks took time off from Dormie House to run up an excellent score of 39 points to win the singles. Chips in and long putts were common in David's round. Phil Byrnes, who features so regularly on the winning list, had 38 points. Well done, Phil. Arthur Johnson on 37 points was in fine touch and played some really good iron shots.

Quiet and friendly Ross Phillips, one of our really talented golfers, shot a round that gave him 35 points. He is a low handicap player who really knows his golf. It is always a pleasure to talk about the game with Ross.

Ben Zappia on 37 points had the fortune to defeat Kingsley Wilson (a good golfer and pleasant golfing companion) on a countback to win the visitor's singles.

AVONDALE HAPPY GOLF DAY

Five birdies by genial golf pro Dan Cullen helped score him 38 points but it was not good enough to beat the top score of the day of 40 points by visitor Alan Jones (25 points on the way out!) Alan plays off 26.

Point scores were good, and the day and general conditions were excellent, until the rains came just at the finish of the field.

It was good to see our treasurer Vic Vadas, one of the really hard workers of the golf section, feature in the winning list with Norm Clark. Norm commenced the round with three pars and set the standard for a good combined effort. (With golf like that you should really become interested again Norm).

Smiling Tim Anderson and easy hitting Dan Cullen, brothers Keith and Herb Clarke, along with Vic Stone and Alan Jones, all scored 44 points. So you see good scoring was the order of the day.

David Samer, looking every inch a golfer, made the fatal mistake ('tis said) of having a lesson on the morning before the round. David smiled his way round just the same and with Fred Leonard had a pleasant day away from dispensing mixtures to sufferers of cough and cold etc. Better luck next time, David.

We've got some really happy players in our lot — here's just a few of the personalities seen at Avondale on 21st June: David Emanuel, Arthur O'Connor, Jack Hansor, Sid Jackson, Pat O'Halloran, Ted Peoples, Vic Stone, Doug Schahinger, John Peoples, Richard Utz, Jim Neil, John Garrity and the one and only Tom Hartigan — just to mention a few.

Sailing personality Kevin McCann wields a wicked golf club too. He's a great sport to have in your team.

JOHN KEATING SCORES THE POSSIBLE AND TAKES OUT MAY-JUNE POINT SCORE

BASIL PHILLIPS LEADS BY HALF A POINT IN NATIVE SON

Records were smashed in the pool when four swimmers broke 20 seconds in winning their heats over the 40 yards dash.

Roger Farrell and Warren Foster recorded 19.4, Bill Kendal 19.5, and Michael McCormack 19.6 seconds.

By the time this issue comes off the press the club championship for the trophy donated by life member Alf Collins will have been swum and won. The tussle for first place between Roger Farrell, Russell Debney, Brian Mortensen, Paul Blake, David Emanuel, Michael McCormack, Graham Bookallil, Philip King, John Nicholas, Bruce Cox, Nick Heath, Rhys Jordan, Ian Lane, Bill Orme, Ian Ross, Mike Saunders, Malcolm Stening and John Keating shall be well worth seeing.

The present holder of the title is Roger Farrell.

The neck and neck struggle between Basil Phillips and Col Bowes for the Native Son has the Third Floor habitues at fever pitch, with Nick Heath ten points away in third place.

The battle for the fourth place between Bill Rowe, John Ward, Roger Farrell and Roger Clark is something that must gladden the heart of Bill Kirwan, donor of the trophies. Actually Roger Clark would have been right up with the leaders only for the fact that he had to miss quite a few races.

Debonair John Keating, with four outright wins, scored the possible and took the monthly point score by five points from dead heaters Warren Foster and newcomer Mike Saunders, with consistent John Ward in fourth place.

New swimmers to join recently were John Nicholas and Maurice Doyle.

Best winning times were R. Farrell 19.4 and 19.5, W. Foster 19.4 and 19.5, W. Kendall 19.5 and 19.7, M. McCormack 19.6, J. Nicholas 20.3, and P. King 20.7 and 21.3 secs.

Last month the handicapper's blue pencil fell foul of C. Bowes, W. Foster, D. Pearson, J. Nicholas, C. Robinson, B. Phillips, J. Keating and M. Saunders. All swam so well that he had to reduce their marks.

Latest on our overseas members — Arthur McCamley visited the Vatican, Danny O'Connor met up with Bill Yewdall and Charles Griffiths in Munich (the highlight was Charles step dancing on the table in the local beer hall)!!
